

YALI Regional Leadership Center East Africa Transformation Fund Grants Request For Applications

Part I: Overview

The Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) Regional Leadership Center (RLC) East Africa (EA) is pleased to invite Alumni of the program and country chapters to submit applications for funding under the Transformation Fund. Through the fund, alumni will have an opportunity to support a variety of projects and initiatives that will help them promote the vision and mission of the YALI RLC EA. The fund will also provide an opportunity for collaboration between alumni and for them to grow and apply their leadership skills and grow while in the process of organising and executing their proposed solutions.

The grants will be for projects and initiatives whose implementation period is less than one year.

Part II: Categories

Applications will be submitted under any of the following grant categories;

(a) Secretariat Funding

This category involves awarding to country chapters that have made significant progress in their formalization or registration activities. It is milestone-based support offered to chapter executive committees that will have submitted their agreed roadmap to formalization and provided necessary evidence as per the following proposed pathways:

Pathway 1: Registration as affiliates of existing organizations (hosting and affiliation in a local organization) based on a jointly agreed MOU. It is highly recommended that a Chapter is hosted by an organization owned or led by an alumni.

Pathway 2: Registration as an independent organization (Local Charity – NGO, Foundation, CBO) in line with local registration requirements.

The maximum grant size for this application is $12,000.

*NB: Chapters that qualify for secretariat funding will automatically receive a grant worth $1,000 to facilitate their alumni mapping activities through a phone-based data collection exercise. The purpose is to collect information on what alumni are currently doing, where they live, challenges they are facing and what additional support they would expect from the YALI RLC EA. Only registered alumni organizations are eligible. Alumni chapters that previously received secretariat funding are not eligible to apply again under this category.

(b) Individual/Group Projects

This category involves awarding a grant to support individual or group initiatives among alumni collaborating to address a community need. It is strongly recommended that applications are made through existing organizations that are led, owned and managed by alumni. Applicants should demonstrate how their proposed solution addresses the pressing problem identified and ultimately leading to transformation. In cases where alumni are collaborating on a project, one member should apply on behalf of the group citing the names of other members involved. Applicants should clearly document any in-kind contributions from other stakeholders.

The Grant size for this application will range between $10,000-$30,000.

Persons living with disabilities and those running projects/initiatives that support adolescent girls and young women, persons living with disabilities and other minority groups are encouraged to apply.

Part III: Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for and receive funding under the Transformation Fund, applicants should observe the following:

- Applications should be submitted through established local organizations led, owned and managed by YALI alumni. Proof of registration as per country local registration laws will be required.
- Applications for secretariat funding should be submitted through the country chapters officials.
- Applications are encouraged for projects that demonstrate innovative solutions, can be scaled up and are sustainable.
- Applications should include signatures from the chairperson, or a designated official appointed by the chapter executive committee.
- It is important that applicants categorically state how they will involve/collaborate with fellow alumni.
- The main contact person (project lead) for the project/initiative will be expected to submit the requisite compliance documents.

Part IV: Selection Criteria

The Transformation Fund Evaluation Committee will be guided by a specific set of questions under each criteria.

Selection Criteria	Scoring
Problem Statement	20
Strategic Approach	20

Activity Description/ innovativeness	10
Sustainability	15
Risk Mitigation	10
Monitoring and Evaluation	15
Budget	10

These review criteria elements are described fully below:

Problem Statement

This will evaluate whether the problem statement is clearly defined using evidence and data.

Strategic Approach

The applicant will clearly outline the steps that will be taken to:

- a) Address the identified problem
- b) Navigate potential obstacles during project implementation
- c) Partner with other stakeholders for successful implementation
- d) Effectively and innovatively implement program objectives

Activity Description

Applicants will demonstrate that performance targets and other results will be reached over the life of the project. The project goals and objectives will be specific, measurable, achievable, time- bound, and realistic. The organization should specify the communities where the proposed activities will take place with a demonstrated ability to implement in those areas.

Sustainability

The applicant's sustainability plan will demonstrate the specific steps that will be taken to ensure project continuity beyond the life of the grant.

Risk Mitigation

The organization will demonstrate that it has management systems and technical capacity in place to facilitate performance of program objectives and ensure successful completion of the scope of work as per donor requirements. The project should have internal controls in place to effectively manage and report the grant.

Monitoring and Evaluation:

Applicants will have an M&E plan that includes indicators that are clearly linked to overall project objectives. This should demonstrate how the project will measure progress, including action items from the organization's implementation plan, along with specific targets/outputs for each action.

Budget

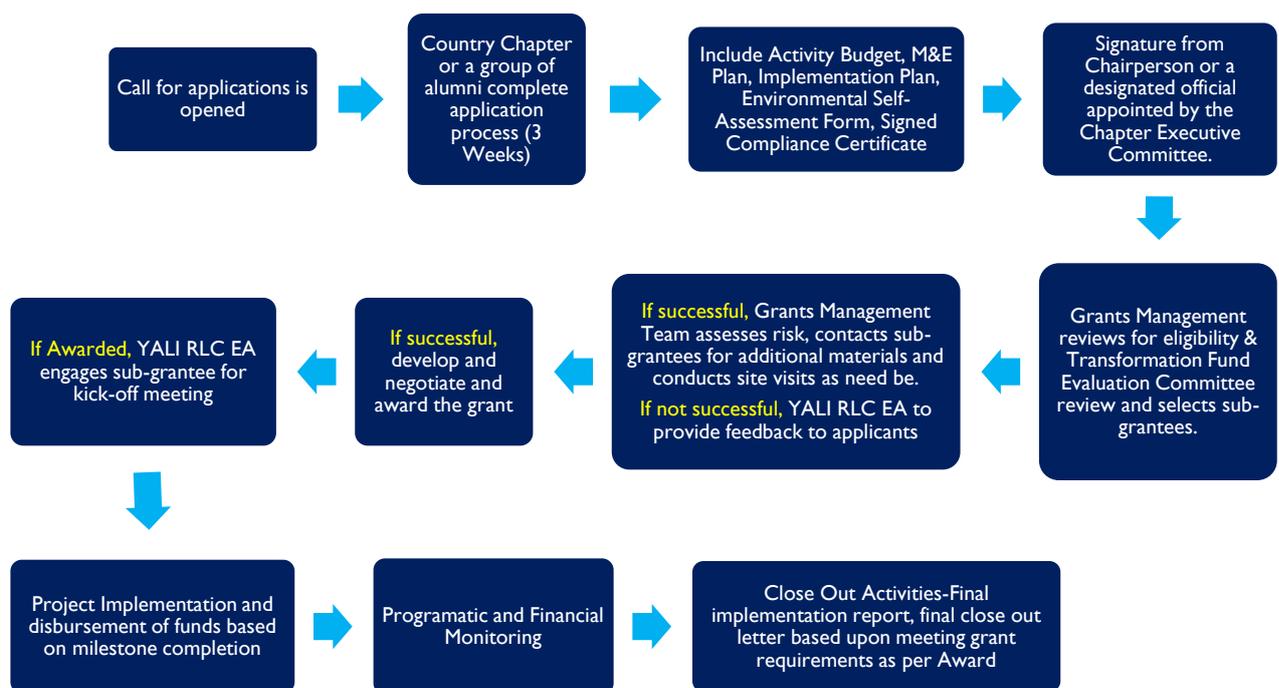

The proposed budget will be analyzed as part of the application selection process. Applicants should submit a detailed itemised budget with budget notes, assumptions, and schedules that clearly explain how the estimated amounts were derived. budgets that include information determined to be unreasonable, incomplete, or based on a methodology that is not adequately supported will be unacceptable. YALI RLC EA may request additional supporting information to the extent necessary to determine whether the costs are fair and reasonable. The budget should also report in-kind contributions if any.

Leverage

These are resources contributed toward alumni projects/initiatives from sources beyond the US government, including cash and in-kind contributions. Applicants of the grants will be encouraged to leverage resources from other sources in order to ensure a broad scope of support for the project/initiatives.
